

MEDIA RELEASE

EMPLOYMENT SERVICES COMPANY AIMBIG EMPLOYMENT

Rehab Management, has been approved to operate as a Disability Employment Services (DES) Panel provider under a new Rehab Management Group subsidiary trading as AimBig Employment.

AimBig was established as part of our expanding disability services division and to strengthen the group's existing work in the disability sector. Beginning 1 July 2018, AimBig will operate Australia-wide as a new DES provider, supporting people with disability gain and maintain meaningful employment. Pre 1 July, AimBig will service transitioning participants existing in the DES program.

"Rehab Management has been providing high quality employment services for over 20 years and we are honoured to operate alongside the Department of Social Services through the DES program with AimBig Employment," said Group Managing Director and Founder, Marcella Romero.

"Our experienced team of professionals will work across 58 employment service areas under AimBig Employment and provide tailored, proactive services to help people find meaningful employment and with employers to gain new, valuable staff members. Achieving meaningful outcomes for people with disability is our core business and it's what we do best."

For further information about AimBig Employment, please contact Head of Communications – Alysha Mortimore. media@aimbig.com.au. Or visit our website www.aimbig.com.au.

To join our growing team at AimBig Employment, please send your expression of interest to vacancies@aimbig.com.au.

Rehab Management will continue to operate nationally, delivering a wide range of individual services and integrated workplace rehabilitation and corporate health solutions.
